Tom excels in fundraising and campaign management. Over the past seven years, Tom has made over 2500 one-to-one top solicitation calls raising over $98 million in funding. He is an expert in fundraising, capital campaign management and operations, training, prospect marketing, advertising, electronic business, and Investor Relations. His campaign solicitation is extraordinary. He has worked on capital campaigns in the following areas: New Orleans, LA; Memphis, TN; Knoxville, TN; St. Louis, MO, Denver, CO, Fort Collins, CO, and Obion County TN, Joliet, IL, Springfield, IL, and Rockford, IL.

Tom has over 15 years of sales and management experience. He founded and operated a successful landscaping business for five years growing sales to over $300,000 per year with eighteen employees. He then worked in the automotive industry for five years developing strong interpersonal skills. After starting out in service, he became the top revenue producer, was elevated to Service Manager for Denver's largest Ford dealership. He helped the dealership achieve Blue Oval Certification and the President's Award – Ford's highest awards for operations and customer service.

Tom is an Eagle Scout and a veteran of the United States Army. He has Black Belts in Karate, Kung Fu and Aikido. Tom graduated from the University of Phoenix with a Bachelor of Science in Electronic Business and a Masters of Business Administration.

He resides in Parker, Colorado with his wife, Beth, and enjoys hiking and fishing with his Labrador retrievers, the Martial Arts, golfing, and watching old movies. One of Tom's life goals is to climb all 54 of Colorado's 14,000 ft mountain peaks, and he has climbed 28 of them.
